

Forum Assessment I: Evaluating My Participation

Directions. Use the following chart to gauge your participation in the forum process. Be honest. Your answers will help you get a sense of your strengths and the things you need to work on for future forums.

Self-Assessment Statements	Never	Seldom	Usually	Always
1. I took an active part and contributed my fair share.
2. I participated but did not dominate the discussion.
3. I tried to make sure that everyone was involved and learning.
4. I drew others into the discussion.
5. I listened carefully and respectfully to what others had to say.
6. I was able to build on ideas that others presented in discussion.
7. I judged ideas but not individuals.
8. I was willing to change my mind.
9. I concentrated on looking for workable solutions.
10. I knew and could discuss the pros and cons of various positions.
11. I thought about the costs and consequences of making different choices.
12. I helped create a new view of how to resolve or make progress on the issue.
13. I helped find common ground.
14. I helped identify a range of possible actions.
15. I felt that the experience was good, even though the topic was controversial.				